Sneak Preview
County Down (in progress)
By Laura Parnes

Sunday, May 15, 8pm

“County Down” is a web-based episodic experimental digital film that combines live action and animation. The project explores an epidemic of psychosis among the adults in a gated community that coincides with a teenage girl’s invention of a designer drug. One day Angel wakes to find that her exclusive housing development has turned into a haven for madness, excess, and decay in this darkly comedic horror series in which parents suddenly prey on their children.
